- d) If the Hellenic Centre cancels a course the full course fee will be reimbursed.

4. Online and In-Person classes The Hellenic Centre reserves the right to move its in-person classes online at any time it is considered necessary for the safety of students and staff. Students attending in-person classes cannot make up for a missed class by attending a class online and vice versa.

5. Class size/placement

- a) Our courses have a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 20 students. If fewer than 5 students have registered on the starting date, we reserve the right to cancel or postpone the course. Students however, have the opportunity to move to another course or to receive a full refund of the course fee.

6. Attendance and Assessment

- a) Students are expected to attend regularly. In the event of absence it is the student's responsibility to find out what has been covered in the class in order to catch up as the tutor has to follow the syllabus and the class has to progress accordingly.
- b) Students cannot make up for missed classes by attending a class on different day.
- b) Assessment is continuous through active participation in the class and homework. It is highly recommended that all students completing their studies at a required level register for the Certificate of Attainment Exams.

7. Holidays There are three holiday periods: Christmas, Easter and Summer. No classes will take place during the Greek Easter Holy Week but that will not affect the number of sessions per term. The Hellenic Centre is also closed during English Bank Holidays. Classes falling on a Bank Holiday will be rescheduled.

8. Private tuition Further terms and conditions apply to students booking private tuition, which are outlined in a contract between the student(s) and the Centre.
